

Nau mai, haere mai. Māori Community Health workers.

Te Whiringa, The Maori Community Health Workers Trust Presents
Māori Community Health Worker

Professional Development

Professional Development programme specifically for Maori Community Health Workers.

12 April 2012 – Pukaki Marae, Mangere, Auckland

11 May 2012 – (Marae TBC), Kaitaia, Northland

Spaces are limited to 25 participants per hui.

Cost: $250.00 inc. GST – funding may be available.

Please contact Brigham for more information.

Go online: www.mchw.net

Email: ba@thinkbig.co.nz

Call Brigham Anderson on (06) 329 2778.

Registrations essential and can be done online at www.mchw.net

What's covered?

- Role and purpose of MCHW
- History of MCHW
- MCHW in 2012 and the future
- Values of MCHWs and practical approaches of practice, including: kaitiaki, whanau, manaaki, nga taonga tuku iho, pono, tika and more
- Working across disciplines and supporting the whanau effectively
- Kaupapa Māori
- Management and supervision
- Navigation
- Topical issues - Health literacy
- And more...